

Main Contract for the design and construction of a 2 lane motorway between the towns of Athlone and Ballinasloe. It consists of 20 km of dual carriageway constructed to motorway standard, 4 km of realigned local roads and 12 km of accommodation access tracks. Works included 13 principal structures including 2 rail bridges, a grade separated junction and an upgrading of an existing grade separated junction. Carried out in joint venture

Road & Bridge Construction

M6 Ballinasloe to Athlone Dual Carriageway

Client – Galway County Council

Engineer – Jacobs Engineering Ltd.

Construction Period – September 2007 – June 2009

Value - €95 Million